Bali to Implement $10 Tourism Tax Starting February 14, 2024

Foreign tourists planning a visit to Indonesia's renowned island destination, Bali, will soon encounter a new requirement. Effective February 14, all foreign visitors will be subject to a tourism tax of 150,000 rupiah (approximately US$9.55).

The new tax isn't limited to mainland Bali; it also encompasses its picturesque surrounding islands like Nusa Penida, Nusa Lembongan, and Nusa Ceningan. This announcement was made by Bali authorities through their official website.

The Levy Applies to Everyone

This fee isn't just for mainland Bali; it encompasses surrounding islands like Nusa Penida, Nusa Lembongan, and Nusa Ceningan. Even tourists arriving from other parts of Indonesia through land or domestic flights must pay the tax.

No Exemptions for Children

It's essential to note that children will not be exempted from this fee, regardless of age.

Convenient Payment Process

To streamline the process, tourists can make their payments conveniently through the Love Bali website before their arrival. Upon payment, they will receive a tourism tax ticket via email, which they should store on their mobile devices for verification purposes at Bali Airport and seaports.
